EDITOR'S COMMENTS -- I hope you will gaze upon the photos in this issue I felt these represented our Club spirit this last year. They show our concern for our dogs and how our hard work and their training and devotion were rewarded by new titles for show, OB, and field. We are a family organization and encourage our children to participate and have special events especially for them. We have team competition, parties, support Humane efforts, National events and most of all are known for our sportsmanship and friendship. I wish you a safe and happy holiday season and look forward to sharing another year of friendship with you.
